From an Islamic perspective the highest and most useful model of perfection is the prophet Muhammad, and the goal of Islamic education is that people be able to live as he lived. Seyyed Hossein Nasr wrote in 1984 that while education does not produce the perfect human, it does introduce the right guidance and knowledge to begin that journey. Islamic education is about creating a learning environment that helps people to develop their intellect and character in a way that is consistent with the values and beliefs of Islam.
