Celebrating the Lectionary® for Preschool and Kindergarten, Year A-Anutsch Dickinson Degendorf 2019-08-21 Celebrating the Lectionary® is a supplementary catechetical resource that helps you bring the richness of the Lectionary and the Liturgical Year into your catechetical program. It can be used in school catechetical programs, during the process of preparing children for Christian initiation, or as a supplement to a traditional basal text for Catholic school or parish religious education programs. It has been changed from a school year annual to now follow the pattern of the Lectionary. It includes sessions for every Sunday of the Liturgical year (Advent, Christmas Time, Lent, Easter Time, and Ordinary Time), sessions for each day of the Sacred Paschal Triduum, and sessions for holydays, solemnities, and feasts so that you can use it in a variety of catechetical settings. Each session is easily adapted to your specific needs and time constraints, with sessions designed so that you can lead class discussions and activities with minimal preparation and use of the resources you have on hand. Each session includes: Background information for the catechists - Ways to connect the children’s lives with the liturgical year - Full text of the day’s Gospel reading and an age-appropriate guide reflection - Gospel-related activities - A take-home page for the families to do during the week

Creative Ideas for Evening Prayer Jan Brind 2005 Other than Evensong or Taize-style meditation, what else is there for evening prayer? Here is a resource that fills this gap to overflowing. It offers dozens of simple, ready-made outlines that are rich with ideas for using visual imagery, music, light and other symbols, with suggestions for getting everyone present actively involved. Developed and used over many years in local churches by the authors, every idea in this book has been tried and tested. The result is an imaginative resource to inspire worship that is simple, memorable and beautiful. As well as round the year the collections there are also extra ideas for public occasions, such as time of tragedy, or for a peace vigil.

The Lord Is Our Light-Nan Duwelng 2014-09-16 The Lord Is Our Light invites you to explore God’s hope and presence through a study of the scripture readings for Advent and Christmas. Key Bible readings call us to praise God as we actively wait for the coming of God’s redemption and new creation. Through the readings, we hear the call to be the light of God revealed through Jesus. The season of Advent offers opportunities to prepare for God’s coming in human form in the baby Jesus and for the approach of God’s kingdom with the second coming of Christ. Hope is the focus of Advent worship, study, and prayer. We will discover the light that began in the manner and that continues as we look forward with hope to Christ’s return. The Lord is our Light is based on the Revised Common Lectionary scriptures for year B of the church year, a three-year cycle of Bible readings. The study includes commentary and reflection on readings from the Old Testament, the Gospels, and the Epistles. It offers the opportunity to explore these Bible readings in a five-session study. The goal is to help participants understand, appreciate, and engage in meaningful and joyful celebrations of Advent and Christmas and to live each day in God’s light through Jesus Christ. The study book includes a leader guide with information about the season of Advent, suggestions for starting and leading small groups, Bible background, and discussion activities

Keeping Christ in Christmas

Cathy Neff is a must have for every Christmas music collection. The cover features Greg Olsen's endearing holiday painting, “Spirit of Christmas.” Composer Cathy Neff has put together a Christmas feast with songs that are all centered on Christ. This is Christmas like you've never heard it before! With new arrangements of old favorites, and some soon-to-be new favorites in styles from pop to classical, country to jazz, this album has something for everyone. "Let Him In" is a powerful ballad that reflects on the question: "If the Baby Jesus came today, would you make Him room in your inn?" Piano, vocal, and guitar. "Angels We Have Heard on High" arranged for choir with piano and organ. A must have for your choir, or your family! You don't want to miss "Don't X Out My Christmas!" A rollicking country romp through the Christmas season with only one request: don't remove Christ from my Christmas. Lead sheet with vocals and chords. "O Come Emmanuel-What Child" is a medley of two Christmas favorites: "O Come, O Come Emmanuel" and "What Child Is This?" arranged for a solo instrument and piano or harp. Very versatile arrangement. "Where Was the Rest of the World?" is a heartwarming ballad for solo voice and piano and guitar. It begins the question: If the only ones who were aware of the Christ Child's birth were a few shepherds in the fields, where was the rest of the world and why didn't they realize that He had been born? Better yet, where are they today as we celebrate His birth? "Christmas Time" is just as cute as it comes. A light, very fun look at everything that is wonderful about Christmas that makes it our favorite time of year, especially the Baby Jesus. "Lullaby, Dear Child" is another touching ballad beautifully arranged as a solo or duet. We tiptoe in to hear Mary singing the Christ Child to sleep. "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing" is a powerful arrangement of this favorite carol. Contains SATB choir parts and piano accompaniment, with a reduction of the string parts found in the original arrangement. Easily played on an organ or assimilated into the piano part. You might never want to use another arrangement ever again! "When You Wake" is a heart melting lullaby as a parent puts their child to bed on Christmas Eve. All the tenderness of the season with melody, chords and rhythms for jazz players. Have fun with this one! "Christmas Eve" is a thoughtful look at the wisemen's visit and the gifts they brought, and what we could possibly give the Savior this Christmas. This arrangement of "Away in a Manger" utilizes all three of the most popular tunes for this song, one for each verse, Cathy Neff has added a fourth verse that brings the song to present day. A must have edition of this beloved carol. It is Cathy Neff's belief that music is not meant to be a spectator sport. That is why she has made this book available. Grab your guitar, sit around your piano, and sing! After all, it's Christmas! Music in Print Master Title Index: 1995

Creative Ideas for Catechists-Beth Ann Rost 1997 Rost takes us into the delightful dimension of creative catechetics, with its powerful impact on children's faith-learning. She first leads us in an exploration of our own creativity, our sense of prayer, and our sense of discipleship. She then suggests ways to enliven the gathering space, using the children's five senses to help open them to these rich faith experiences. She offers approaches to the critical factors in preparation, presentation and procedure that make for successful empowerment of children's faith learning. She also includes scores of practical ideas for involving primary and middle-grade children in making prayer, helping them express their unity with God through prayer. Finally, she discusses the many resources essential to our own spiritual formation, which must go hand-in-hand with that of unfolding a vibrant faith life in children. An excellent resource to inspire, encourage and sensibly guide catechetical ministry as it is meant to be: joy-filled, revitalizing and life-impacting.
